

Mrs C Melaugh

Inspirational Educator
of the Year

Mrs Clare Melaugh winner of the Inspirational Educator of the Year Award

Clare Melaugh is a graduate from Ulster University with a Degree in History and English. Clare went on to study a MSC in Computing Information Systems. Clare was employed as a teacher of Mathematics and ICT at St Mary's College and was promoted to Head of ICT.

Clare is a teacher of Software Systems Development, teaching pupils from St Mary's College and also pupils from other schools through collaboration.

There is hardly an aspect of our lives that isn't dominated by Software Systems.

In 2016, Clare received the Blackboard Teacher Award in recognition of her efforts to develop computing in the classroom.

In September 2018, Clare was awarded Inspirational Educator of the year at the Derry Journal People's Awards.

In 2018, Clare was awarded Inspirational Educator of the Year at the Derry Journal People's Awards.